

Please do not overturn the NJ Do Not Call list. We are finally enjoying peace and quiet with our family. This is about family values and giving us the opportunity to quality time together without the participation of a telemarketer. Thank you.